CONDITIONS TO SUPPORT CONVERSION TO PERMANENCY OF TEMP TEACHERS

The QTU and DET have reached in-principle agreement on a replacement Teachers' Certified Agreement 2009.

Subject to DET ballot and certification of the Agreement, the following clauses will apply:

- 9.3.1 The Queensland Government Public Service Commission Temporary Employment Directive will apply with respect to the conversion of teachers engaged in a temporary capacity to tenured status.
- 9.3.2 For the purpose of determining eligibility for review of temporary employment status under the Directive:
- Continuous service will be deemed to include periods of supply employment where the total period of supply work does not exceed 20% of the total period of employment within any one school year; and
 - Eligible non-continuous service will be deemed to include a cumulative total of three years' service in the same role provided that the breaks in employment do not exceed a total of three months during designated school terms in the previous three-year period.
- 9.3.3 Temporary teachers whose employment is reviewed under the Directive and who are eligible for conversion to tenured status will be afforded the opportunity to identify any personal circumstances that might affect their initial appointment.
- 9.3.4 Employees that are converted to tenured status will be subject to the usual requirements for transfer in accordance with the teacher transfer guidelines, including the ability for teachers to identify personal circumstance that may impact on their employment.
- 9.3.5 Temporary teachers who decline an offer of permanent employment will have their employment status reviewed following a further three years' service subject to the terms of this clause.
