

Who can join?

- All retired teachers, teacher aides from QLD state and non-state schools, colleges and other educational institutions whether at preschool, primary, secondary, tertiary, special, technical or advanced educational levels.
- Any retired person who held a position allied to education in an interstate or overseas educational institution.
- The spouse of any financial member, or spouse of a deceased member who makes application for membership.
- Any retired staff member of QLD Teachers' Union or QLD Teachers' Union Health who makes application for membership.

Camaraderie

Queensland
Retired
Teachers' Association

QUEENSLAND RETIRED
TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION

"A professional fraternal fellowship in retirement"

Membership Form

Mrs/Miss/Ms/Mr/Dr.....
 Address:.....
 Postcode:
 Phone:.....
 Email:
 Qualifications: Last employed as:.....
 at..... Date retired: / /
 Interests (optional)
 Cultural: Sports:.....
 Community Service: Hobbies:
 Other:
 Amount Enclosed: $..... (make cheque payable to QRTA)
 Date: / /

Ventures

An invitation to join

Who are we?

Since 1979 QRTA has been supporting retired teachers and their associates, encouraging growth, good health and providing material benefits. There are 1100 plus members throughout Queensland.

Events

With branch groups at Townsville, Rockhampton, Maryborough, Toowoomba and Brisbane it's easy to keep in contact with retired teachers in your area. We have a range of interesting get-togethers regularly throughout the year that let you enjoy a professional fraternal fellowship in retirement - come and join us. Venues and details appear on our annual program brochure. An executive group meets at QTU Milton, monthly.

Celebrations

Benefits

QRTA members receive:

- Continued membership of The Union Shopper for discount buying
- Receipt by post of our highly acclaimed Newsletter "The Digest"
- Updates in current educational trends through the "QTU Journal"
- A copy of our "Annual Programme of Events" Brochure

Kevin Bates, QTU President and Noela Rogers, QRTA President

Supporters

We are professionally very well supported by:

- The Qld. Teachers' Union
- The Qld. Teachers' Mutual Bank
- The Union Shopper
- Teachers' Union Health
- We are actively involved with many groups working for the retired and/or ageing

How do I join?

Membership for life is only $20. There's an annual fee of $5 (subject to change), payable in January each year, to receive the "Benefits Package" described earlier.

To join, complete our QRTA Membership Form, include $25, and send to our current membership secretary or QRTA c/o QLD Teachers' Union 21 Graham St, MILTON 4064

Joining Forms are available from

- The back of this brochure
- Our web pages at qtu.asn.au
 - Click on QTU Contact Details
 - Click on QRTA
- The QTU office ph (07) 3512 9000
- Our Membership Secretary - name etc in Programme Brochure

Guest Speakers

