

Pre-service and graduate teacher professional development

QTU Associate Members Seminar (with Glen Pearsall)

Wednesday 21 November 2018

1:00 – 4:00pm

Teachers' Building, 21 Graham Street, Milton

This seminar is FREE for QTU associate members in their final years of education training

In this half day workshop, Glen Pearsall author of the best selling 'And Gladly Teach' and 'Classroom Dynamics – A Teacher's Handbook', acclaimed presenter of PD at the Pub series, explores practical hands-on strategies for new teachers in the classroom. By the end of the session participants will have explored:

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Practical engagement activities and games that have been road-tested in classrooms throughout Australia. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Approaches for getting the most of your colleagues whilst developing your own style
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Techniques for reducing correction workload and 2minute lesson planning strategies for producing activities under pressure 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Effective feedback tools designed to give new teachers opportunities to reflect on and build confidence in their teaching
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Strategies for teaching students to take responsibility for their own learning 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Resources that are flexible, easy to use and highly effective for working with a wide range of learners
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Effective techniques for creating and maintaining cooperative classrooms

RSVP - If you wish to attend this seminar for associate members, please apply email qtec@qtu.asn.au by Wednesday 14 November 2018. The seminar is from 1 – 4pm with afternoon tea included. Confirmation and further details will be provided once your attendance is confirmed. If you have any queries, please do not hesitate to contact me on 07 3512 9000 or email qtec@qtu.asn.au. We look forward to your participation.

Pauline Gagiero
QTU Education and Training Coordinator

Surname:	First name:
QTU member number:	Private phone/mobile:
Email:
Name of University:	