- (c) A ballot paper shall be informal:
- (i) If it has no vote indicated thereon;
 - (ii) If it has upon it any mark or writing by which in the opinion of the Returning Officer the voter can be identified;
 - (iii) If it does not record the voter's first preference for one candidate where one person is to be elected; or
 - (iv) If it does not record primary votes equal to the required number of candidates where more than one person is to be elected.
- (d) A ballot paper shall not be informal for any reason other than the reasons above specified and effect shall be given to it according to the member's intention so far as his/her intention is clear.
- A 'tick' or a 'cross' shall be considered to indicate a first preference vote in elections where there is a single vacancy to be filled. 'Ticks' or 'crosses' shall be considered to indicate primary votes provided their number corresponds with the number of vacancies to be filled where more than one person is to be elected.
- (e) The Returning Officer shall not place upon any ballot paper any mark or writing which would enable any person to identify the voter by whom it was used.

- (h) The Returning Officer may reject any ballot paper as being informal although it is not objected to by a scrutineer.
- (i) In ballots where one candidate is to be elected:
- (i) The candidate who has received the largest number of first preference votes shall, if that number constitutes an absolute majority of votes, be elected.
 - (ii) If no candidate has received an absolute majority of votes, the Returning Officer shall make a fresh scrutiny of formal ballot papers and proceed with the counting of the vote as follows:
 - 1 The candidate who has the fewest number of first preference votes shall be excluded and each vote counted to him/her shall be counted to the next candidate in order of the voter's preference, if such contingent preference has been allocated.
 - 2 If no candidate then has an absolute majority of votes, the process of excluding the candidate who has the fewest votes and counting such of his/her ballot papers to the unexcluded candidate next in the order of the voters contingent preference shall be repeated until one candidate has an absolute majority of votes or one candidate remains unexcluded.
 - 3 If on any count, two or more candidates have an equal number of votes and one of them has to be excluded, the Returning Officer shall cast lots to decide which will be excluded.
 - 4 If on the final count, two candidates have an equal number of votes, the Returning Officer shall cast lots to decide which candidate shall be elected.
 - 5 An absolute majority of votes means a greater number than one-half of the whole number of formal ballot papers.

- (i) The votes shall be classified into two categories as follows:
 - 1 The preference votes to the number of vacancies to be filled shall be termed "primary" votes, and shall have equal value in the first count and be credited to the candidate for whom they are cast, whether marked 1, 2, 3 etc. according to the number.
 - 2 The preference votes beyond those referred to in (1) shall be termed "Secondary" votes and shall have rank according to their numerical number and shall be allocated in rank order unless the ranking secondary vote has been previously allocated.
 - (ii) A vote shall be informal if the ballot paper does not record primary votes equal in number to the number of vacancies to be filled. A vote shall not be informal due to the omission or the voter's intention with respect to secondary votes.
 - (iii) The "primary" votes shall first be counted and a list shall be prepared of the candidates in order according to the primary votes cast for them. The candidate who is lowest on the list thus compiled shall be excluded from the count.
 - (iv) Each ballot paper on which such excluded candidate received a "primary" vote shall then be examined to determine its "secondary" vote and the preference so found shall be allotted to the appropriate unexcluded candidate on the first count.

- (v) On the conclusion of the second count, the above procedure of exclusion of candidates from the count and the distribution of their secondary votes shall continue until the required number of successful candidates has been determined.
 - (vi) If, in any count, the next available preference vote of an excluded candidate is cast in favour of an excluded candidate, such preference vote shall be disregarded and the next available preference vote cast in favour of a remaining candidate shall be added to the votes credited to the candidate.
 - (vii) If, in any count, two or more candidates each receive the same number of votes and one of them has to be excluded, the Returning Officer shall decide by his/her casting vote the candidate which shall remain in the count.

- (n) A scrutiny may be adjourned from time to time as the Returning Officer may reasonably deem necessary until the counting of the votes is complete and he/she shall take all action necessary for the safe keeping of all envelopes, ballot papers and other documents and to ensure the accuracy of the ballot.

AMENDMENTS

Moving an Amendment

8. After a motion has been moved and seconded, any member of Conference may move an amendment, such amendment to be handed to the Chairperson in writing. If such amendment be seconded, it shall become the subject of discussion.

Constitution and Rules 2018

Amendment must be relevant

9. An amendment must be relevant to the question, and so framed that it forms a sensible and consistent proposal. It must not be a direct negation of the original motion.

Further Amendments

10. No further amendment shall be moved until the amendment before Conference is disposed of.

No Right of Reply to Amendment

11. The mover of an amendment shall not have the Right of Reply to the debate on such amendment.

Substantive Motion

12. Should the amendment be carried, it then becomes a substantive motion upon which further amendments may be moved, always providing that there shall not be, at one time, more than one amendment before the Conference.

Foreshadowed Amendment

13. Any member during his/her speech on an amendment shall have the right to foreshadow a further amendment but such foreshadowed amendment shall not formally come before the meeting until the motion or amendment before the Chair has been disposed of. The Chairperson may request the substance of the foreshadowed amendment.

PROCEDURAL QUESTIONS

Thirty minute limit

14. Should any question have occupied the attention of the meeting for thirty minutes, the discussion on such question shall be deemed to have closed, and the Chairperson shall forthwith call on the mover to reply, unless the meeting decides by resolution to continue the discussion of the matter in question for a further specified period.

Superseding a motion

15. A debate may be superseded by the carrying of a motion that the question be deferred or referred or, by a motion agreed to, that Conference proceed to the next business, provided that such motion shall not be heard until a speaker to the motion has spoken in the debate.

Point of Order

16. On a member rising during discussion to a Point of Order, the speaker shall sit down, and the member so rising shall state the Point of Order and the Chairperson shall rule thereon.

Disagreement with the Chairperson

17. When a motion to disagree with the ruling of the Chairperson has been duly proposed and seconded, the Chairperson shall be allowed three minutes to speak in explanation of his/her ruling. The mover of the motion shall then be allowed three minutes to speak in support of this motion. The question shall then be put to the vote. The Chairperson will then abide by the decision of the meeting.

Chairperson vacates the Chair

18. When a motion of dissent from the Chairperson's ruling is duly moved and seconded, the Chairperson shall vacate the Chair and the Vice-President or his/her Deputy will take the Chair before such motion is discussed or voted upon.

Constitution and Rules 2018

"Gag" motion

19. Any member of Conference who has not already spoken on the motion or amendment under discussion may formally propose: 'That the question be now put'. If formally seconded, the proposal shall be put without further discussion and, if carried by two-thirds of the members of Conference present and voting, the mover of the question shall have the Right of Reply, after which the motion must be put to the vote.

Limit on "Gag" motion

20. The Chairperson shall not accept the motion 'That the question be now put' until at least one (1) member has spoken for and one (1) member has spoken against the question.

Referral to Agenda Committee

21. The Chairperson of Conference shall have the power to refer any section of the Agenda Paper, or any part thereof, to the Agenda Committee. The Committee shall bring up their report and recommendations at the following session of Conference, or at such later sittings as may be agreed to by Conference. Such report shall be dealt with when the section referred to is under consideration.

Matter of Urgency

22. A motion may be moved seeking the permission of the meeting to discuss a matter of urgency. If the motion is carried the decision shall become effective immediately, if practicable, or as soon as possible thereafter if it is not practicable. Council or Conference is not to accept urgency motions which bind our members to industrial action or place them in a position where they can be dismissed by their employer.

Machinery Motion

23. The meeting may agree on the voices, to a motion being declared a machinery motion upon which no discussion may take place. Should any voice be raised in dissent, the motion shall not be declared a machinery motion.

Recommittal

24. Any motion once dealt with at any meeting of Council or Conference shall be recommitted at the meeting if a resolution for its recommittal be carried by a two-thirds majority of the members present and voting.

In Committee

25. A motion that the meeting resolve itself into committee shall be put without discussion. There shall be no restriction on the number of times a member may speak to the question whilst in committee.

Division

26. In a division names of delegates voting for and against shall be printed in the Journal in the Conference Report and no delegate present may abstain from voting in a division.

ORDER DURING DEBATE

Call to Order

27. The Chairperson shall call to order any speaker who departs from the question, or who violates the courtesies or rules of debate.

Chairperson rises

28. When the Chairperson rises during a debate, any member then speaking or offering to speak shall be seated, so that the Chairperson may be heard without interruption.

Constitution and Rules 2018
