

Monday 25 March (Day 1)

Time	Event
8.15am	Registration
8.45am	Introduction and housekeeping: Nick Shirley (Chair, QTU Education Leaders Committee)
8.55am	Welcome to Country: Songwoman Maroochy Barambah
9.10am	Conference opening: Cresta Richardson (President, QTU)
9.30am	Keynote: The grown-ups in the room Adam Voigt (author, leader and educator)
10.30	Sponsor presentation: Remserv
10.35am	Morning tea
11.00am – 12.15pm	Workshop series 1
1. Recruitment and selection – implementing the new directive Paige Bousen Assistant Secretary – Education Leaders, QTU Mel Colvill Teacher Talent and Mobility Team, DoE Chris Shevelling Industrial Advocate/Legal, QTU	2. If systems drive behaviour, then how do you manage a school as a QTU leader? Sarah Holcombe and Noel Rawlins Education Leaders Committee, QTU
3. Responding to evolving human behaviours – the modern school leader challenge Peter Fittler Deputy Principal – Behaviour	4. HR 101 for school leaders Gillian Crotty Assistant Secretary, Women's and Social Welfare Issues, QTU
5. Engaged classrooms through effective classroom management Cate Whiting Principal Teaching and Learning Specialist, Australian Education Research Organisation
12.15 – 1.30pm	Workshop series 2
6. Orientation of psychosocial hazards Scott Zackeresen Safe Work College, Queensland Council of Unions	7. Connectedness and culturally responsive leadership Zan Branford Principal, Northgate State School
8. Responding to evolving human behaviours – the modern school leader challenge Peter Fittler Deputy Principal – Behaviour	9. A partnership of improvement Chris Capra School Supervisor, Intergovernmental Relations and School Resourcing Review, DoE Frank Durante Principal, Notre Dame High School
10. This workshop is no longer available.
1.30pm	Lunch
2.15pm	Comprehensive Review of School Resourcing: the case for fresh thinking and a move towards needs-based resourcing Cindy Freier (Project Officer Review of School Resourcing, QTU) and Chris Capra (School Supervisor, Intergovernmental Relations and School Resourcing Review, DoE)
2.45pm	EB11 – Education leaders think tank Leah Mertens (Deputy General Secretary, QTU), Brendan Crotty (Deputy General Secretary, QTU) and Paige Bousen (Assistant Secretary – Education Leaders, QTU)
3.30pm	Close, networking and refreshments

Tuesday 26 March (Day 2)

Time	Event
7.30am	Fringe event: Feedback on the QTU's submission to the review of the Education (General Provisions) Act
8.30am	Registration (new delegates)
8.40am	Sponsor presentation: Teachers Union Health
8.50am	Sponsor presentation: Australian Retirement Trust
9.00am	Keynote: School leaders and the law Rachel Drew (Managing Partner, Holding Redlich)
9.30am	Keynote: What is reassessment and how does instructional leadership support teachers through a mindset change? Frank Durante (Principal, Notre Dame High School, Alberta, Canada)
10.15am	Morning tea
10.45am – 12.00pm	Workshop series 3
11. Digging deeper into reassessment for learning Frank Durante Principal, Notre Dame High School, Canada	 12. Recruitment and selection – implementing the new directive Paige Bousen Assistant Secretary – Education Leaders, QTU Mel Colvill Teacher Talent and Mobility Team, DoE Chris Shevelling Industrial Advocate/Legal, QTU   13. Education Futures Institute – empowering professional expertise Bernadette Hanna Executive Director, Education Futures Institute, Schools and Student Support Division   14. Project is me Deb Spanner Principal, Indooroopilly State School Ross McNichol Principal, Mount Gravatt State High School   15. Strengthening safe systems to meet WHS duties. Kevina O'Neill Assistant Secretary – Services, QTU Jodie McFadden Organiser (Gold Coast), QTU
12.00 – 1.15pm	Workshop series 4
16. Managing unreasonable conduct of parents and community members Caleb Rook Organiser (Metropolitan Central), QTU	 17. Trust us – building trust as a leader Heather Murry Executive Principal, Kirwin State High School Paige Bousen Assistant Secretary – Education Leaders, QTU   18. Education Futures Institute – developing middle leadership Bernadette Hanna Executive Director, Education Futures Institute, Schools and Student Support Division Dr Sandra Nissen Director, Strategic Implementation and Educational Performance, Schools and Student Support Division   19. Conversations are the work of leaders and the workhorses of our schools/organisations Phillip Carleton Queensland Association of State School Principals   20. School resourcing landscapes – what does the picture look like within and beyond the Queensland context? Cindy Freier Project Officer, Review of School Resourcing, QTU Chris Capra School Supervisor, Intergovernmental Relations and School Resourcing Review, DoE
1.15pm	Lunch
2.00pm	Let's talk all things state education Kate Ruttiman (General Secretary, QTU) and Megan Barry (Deputy Director-General, People, Information and Communication Services, DoE)
3.00pm	Conference wrap-up
3.15pm	Close